Governor

CERTIFICATE OF PROCLAMATION

On behalf of the citizens of Michigan, I, Governor Jennifer M. Granholm, do hereby proclaim the week of November 13, 2006, as

International Education Week

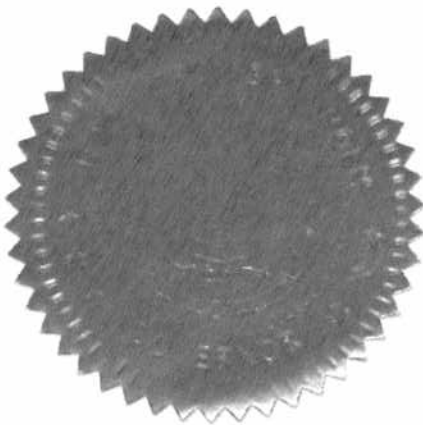

Whereas, International education and exchange include thousands of programs, public and private, campus-based and national, that promote the sharing of ideas and experiences across borders; and,

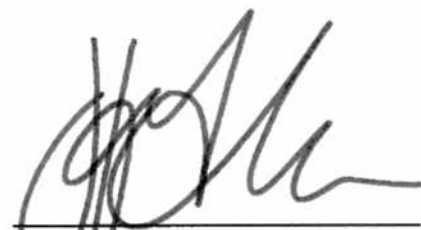

Whereas, These programs include study abroad programs, citizens and scholarly exchanges, foreign students on U.S. campuses, area and foreign language studies, and global approaches to U.S. education; and,

Whereas, There are currently 22,000 foreign students studying at Michigan colleges and universities; and,

Whereas, It is important to recognize the significant impact international education has in our lives and communities and to promote international educational exchanges is a way to enhance mutual understanding and acceptance; and now therefore be it,

Resolved, That I, Jennifer M. Granholm, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim the week of November 13, 2006, as International Education Week.
